

The Arc of New Mexico's Vision for all People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

All people with intellectual and developmental disabilities are included and participate as full members of the community. Infants, children and youth with I/DD experience the security of family, while living and learning with their peers. Adults with I/DD lead lives of their own choosing, fully integrated in the community, have the opportunity to engage in productive work for fair wages, participate in civic and community affairs, have good health and enjoy meaningful relationships.

People with I/DD have access to the full range of home and community-based supports and services necessary to control their own lives; their families have access to needed family supports. Families enjoy the freedom and peace of mind that comes from knowing that their loved ones have the supports they need to live a full and satisfying life.

Valued and accepted, people with I/DD enjoy the respect, dignity, equality, safety and security accorded to other members of society. As self-advocates, they have a powerful and united voice on the issues that affect their lives and well-being, and enjoy the broad support of family members, friends, colleagues and community members. People with I/DD and their families fully embrace The Arc as their preferred partner for advocacy, services and supports
