

Trainings Offered

at the Center for Advocacy & Education

Disability 101 training series

- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) 101: what the law requires for public and private service providers!
- “Behaviors” (All Behavior Is Communication)
- “Disability Rights” (Human Rights)
- Ableism
- Communication, Terminology, & Language: Words Have Power!
- Disability Laws: Do You Know What’s Legally Required?
- Disability Services in NM: how to apply, what services are available, state funds and how to obtain services through specific departments/bureaus/programs (who to contact), and more
- Guardianship and Human Rights
- Marriage, kids, sex, LGBTQIA+ topics/focused discussions
- Recognizing and Reporting Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation (ANE): recognize the warning signs, know what to do, and know how & where to report when you or someone you love might be at risk
- Sexual Violence Against People with Disabilities: how to respond when someone discloses sexual violence, and what YOU personally can do to stop contributing to a culture of violence

- Facilitating Meetings Like A Rockstar: how to handle difficult participants, effective trainer techniques, how to get your meeting or ISP back on track, and more.
- Financial Inclusion and Empowerment Programs: financial wellness, financial goal planning, money management skills, and more (workshops and individual training in financial management).
- Healthy Sexuality Education Series
- Strategies for Improving Accessibility for People with Disabilities
- And more!

Call or email us to ask about other topics or training topics & opportunities!

505-883-4630

advocate@arcnm.org